Questions and Answers about Easter

We have entered that glorious season of the year when we commemorate and celebrate the most important events of Christendom: the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Each year we celebrate His death on the cross and glorious resurrection with special sermons, musicals and dramatic reenactments.

Q: Where did the name Easter come from?

A: An early Christian writer--Bede (between 673-735)—claimed that it came from the name Eastre, a Germanic goddess of spring, the time of year we observe Easter. The celebration of Christ's resurrection apparently replaced the pagan festival.

Q: Is the word Easter in the Bible?

A: It is not found in the original language. It does appear once in the King James version in Acts 12:4. The word translated Easter in that verse is from the Greek pascha which is translated Passover the other 28 times it appears in the King James. This was corrected in the New King James and other English versions.

Q. What is a better name?

A: Resurrection Sunday is a better representation of the true meaning of the day.

Q. How did the early celebration of Christ's resurrection begin?

A: The earliest historical reference of a formal celebration by the church appears in the middle of the second century. There was a debate then over the correct date of celebration.

Q: How is the date figured?

A: Easter Sunday occurs on the first Sunday following the first full moon after the spring equinox. Because it is based on the lunar calendar, Easter can fall anywhere between March 22nd and April 25th.

Q. What is Lent?

A: Lent is a period of 40 days before Easter. It is primarily emphasized in liturgical churches. During this time Christians are expected to fast or give up bad habits.

Q. What is the true meaning of Easter?

A: The true meaning of Easter is found in the suggested better name - Resurrection Sunday. It is a celebration of the historical fact that Christ rose from the dead and through His victory over death opened the doorway of eternal life to all who believe in Him!

“Because I live, you also will live.”
