Because of this, the Sunday after Easter is also known as Renewal Sunday, as Thomas renews and reaffirms his faith and commitment to the Lord.

The Power of the Resurrection

The message of the cross and resurrection becomes meaningful only when we act on it. The resurrection transformed the disciples of Jesus. Once they encountered the risen Christ, they were completely changed. Has the message of the cross transformed you?

The Disciples:

- Ordinary in nature: They were ordinary men, none a great scholar, or theologian. They were not natural leaders, nor exceptionally gifted intellectually.
- Chosen by Jesus: As seen in Luke 6:12–15, Jesus selected His disciples after spending a whole night in prayer. They did not volunteer; He chose them, fully aware of their weaknesses and failures.
- Trained by Jesus: They walked with Him for three years. They were firsthand eyewitnesses—the first generation of Gospel preachers.
- Commissioned by Jesus: These twelve men became the foundation of the Church (Ephesians 2:20). From a human perspective, the spread of the Gospel depended on them—there was no Plan B.
- Witnesses to revelation: They and their associates were entrusted with divine revelation and were instrumental in the writing of the New Testament.

Through these disciples, Jesus inaugurated the New Covenant and a new beginning.

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Mission

God is not dependent on the wise and the clever. No one would have predicted that these ordinary men would turn the world upside down. Yet they did.

As believers today, we are reminded that the apostles, most of whom were martyred, were ordinary people entrusted with an extraordinary mission.

Will you be part of this mission and help transform the 21ST century world?

Welcome

RENEWAL
THE SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

The week of Easter is often spiritually intense, emotionally draining, and logistically busy. After such a whirlwind, it is no surprise that many feel tired!

Interestingly, the Sunday after Easter has long been called Low Sunday. Why this name? It is because many of the special elements of Easter services are missing. Usually, there is no Communion service, and the atmosphere seems quieter, perhaps reflecting the tiredness of both pastors and congregation. It is also unofficially called "Empty Pew Sunday" due to lower attendance.

Yet this Sunday carries a deeper meaning. In John 20:19–29, Jesus appears to His disciples and says, "Peace be unto you." To Thomas He declares, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." Thomas responds in faith, "My Lord and my God!"
