

Resurrection SUNDAY

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE

NEW LIFE BULLETIN + 5 APRIL 2026

— HE IS — RISEN INDEED!

Easter morning dawns with the greatest proclamation ever: “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen!” (Luke 24:5–6).

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is not just a historical event – it is the very foundation of our faith, anchor of our trust and the reason for celebration! What appeared to be a defeat on the cross on Good Friday, became a victory on Easter Sunday. The empty tomb declares victory, life, and the resurrection power of God. Death has been defeated, sin has lost its grip, and hope has been restored. His resurrection enables us to live as people of hope, courage, and joy, even in a world that is going through uncertain times now.

It's easy to rush past this truth because we've heard it so often. But let us pause for a moment and truly consider it: the same power that raised Christ from the dead is at work today. Not just in the world but also in every one of us in a more personal way. So, on this Easter day, if you are bogged down by something heavy- a deep personal loss, fear of the future, disappointment, or uncertainty be assured that no situation is beyond redemption. The stone was rolled away not just for Jesus to come out, but to show us that nothing can keep our hope buried forever.

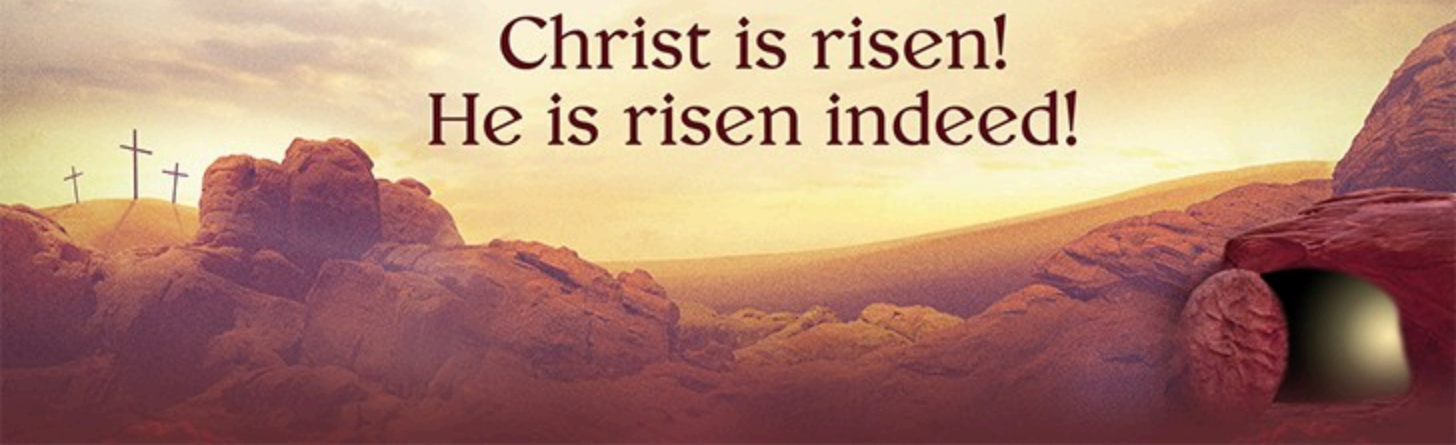

Today, let us rest in that truth. Whatever feels "dead" in our lives - dreams, faith, joy - God is able to restore it. The risen Christ walks with us in our struggles, strengthens us in our moments of doubt. Easter is more than a day on the calendar—it is a daily reality for every believer.

It is also a reminder for us to share the good news. Just as the women at the tomb and the disciples were entrusted with the message of resurrection, we too are called to carry this good news into the world. It compels us to share the story of God's love, forgiveness, and victory. It reminds us that the gospel is not meant to be kept within church walls or within us but to be proclaimed to the world in need.

When we celebrate Easter, we are not only rejoicing in what Christ has done for us, we are recommitting ourselves to be witnesses of His power and spreading the hope the resurrection brings to people all around.

May this Easter Sunday not only renew our faith but also inspire us to share the good news.
