Let the little Children

Come to Me

MARK 10:14

We thank God for the wonderful Kids Konvention held over the last few days. The presence of God moved powerfully among the children, and we witnessed great joy, worship, and spiritual transformation. Hundreds of children participated enthusiastically in songs, Bible lessons, games, and prayer sessions. Young hearts were touched by the Word of God, and several children dedicated their lives afresh to Jesus. It was a beautiful time of learning, fellowship, and experiencing God's love together. May the seed planted in the hearts of these children continue to grow for the glory of God.

Christ Calls Children

Jesus lovingly invited children to come near Him. He never pushed them away but welcomed them with open arms. Children are important to God and His kingdom because their hearts are pure and trusting. Christ values their faith and innocence. The church must guide children toward Jesus with love and patience. Families should teach them about prayer and Scripture. Every child is precious to the Savior.

Christ Cares for Children

The Bible says children are a gift from God. Jesus cares deeply for their lives, growth, and future. Parents are called to raise children with wisdom and kindness. A loving home helps children feel safe and secure. God watches over them with constant care. Children thrive when surrounded by God's love.

Christ Comforts Children

Children also face fear, sadness, and struggles. Jesus comforts them during difficult times and reminds them that they are never alone. His presence gives peace and courage to young hearts. Prayer helps children to trust God in every situation. Teachers and parents should encourage them with God's promises. Christ remains their helper and protector always. His love brings strength and hope.

Christ Cleanses Children

Jesus came to save all people, including children. He forgives sin and makes hearts pure through His grace. Children must also learn about repentance and faith in Christ. God's Word teaches them to choose what is right. As they grow spiritually, they become a light to others. Jesus changes lives through His saving love. His grace leads children into godly living.

Christ Commissions Children

Children can shine for Jesus wherever they go. They should pray, worship, obey parents, and show kindness to friends. God can use young lives for His glory. Even small acts of love can make a big difference. Churches should encourage children to serve joyfully. Young believers can inspire others with simple faith. Jesus calls children to be His witnesses.

Let us love and lead every child to grow in Christ daily.
