A Timely Word

A newspaper cartoonist sent an e-mail to twenty of his acquaintances. Each message was the same: it contained only one word, "Congratulations!" But, as far as he knew, not one of them had accomplished anything worth congratulating. Within a few days, he had either an e-mail or phone call of thanks from everyone on the list. Each one mentioned something they had done that seemed deserving of praise. Most of them said, "I was really surprised you found out." Lesson: Everyone likes to be appreciated.

In Proverbs 25:11 we read, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver." This is a picture of sculptured work for the decoration of an expensive building—something of great beauty. Equally lovely are the words of appreciation spoken at the proper time. I like the way Proverbs 15:23b expresses it: "how good is a timely word!" "The deepest principle of human nature is a craving to be appreciated." (William James)

Today give someone the healing gift of appreciation.

"The tongue that brings healing is a tree of life." PROVERBS 15:4
